

? Expository?

plz confirm.

Date 20
M T W T F S S

Human inventions move societies backward

Outline

1- Introduction: Thesis statement: - Human inventions move societies forward. In fact, invention of telecommunication devices, digital technology in education, and machinery in hospitals etc. move societies more forward. Therefore, human inventions move societies forward. ~~rather~~

2- Role of human inventions in society

3- Human inventions move societies forward

a) Invention of telecommunication devices has connected societies

b) Digital technology has improved quality of education

c) Modern inventions such as robotics and laser surgery has provided better healthcare system

d) Use of robots in industries has increased productivity for societies

e) Development of household machines have made work easier in societies

4- Human inventions move societies backward

a) Telecommunication devices have increased threat to human morality

b) Dependency on digital education has posed threat to skillful learning of students

c) Modern healthcare technologies prevail in those countries where there is strong economic sector

- d) Developing societies lack invention facilities and ~~make~~ human inventions move developing societies backward
- e) Reliance on machines has made men lazy

5- Human inventions made advanced societies to move forward

- a) Telecommunications devices have facilitated connectivity and communication
- b) Digital technology has also provided learning platform through group study and group cooperation
- c) Modern healthcare technologies are often affordable for all
- d) Globalized world has enhanced mobility of technology all across the world by certain costs
- e) Machines have helped in working to manage a huge burden of work easily

6- Conclusion