

Safia Bano

Date: _____

Day: M T W T F S

(CSS-2020 Transation)

The Education system of every nation of the world is compatible with the mode or behavior of the nation, which helps to achieve national and communal goals and the nations remain active or energetic for desired objective. Therefore

The education system of every nation is mutual training system which helps in fastening the mental abilities of people and which also helps in character building of people. The educational system trained the people in such way that individual change the destiny or future of the nation.