6. Conclusion

The security of citizens of Pakistan has deteriorated to the extent that even children are not safe in Pakistan. They are being beaten, harassed, sexually assaulted and molested. All of this has resulted in mounting child abuse cases; where children of country are abused physically, sexually, and mentally. The day to day emergence of this heinous crime has spread a wave of terror. One wonders why do perpetrators commit such a serious crime? The answer to the question lies in poor state of rule of law in Pakistan, rampant poverty, and because of lack of education; which deprives the perpetrator to understand the intensity of his/her crime. All of this has negatively impacted Pakistan by worsening physical and mental health of victims of child abuse. They often quit showing up at public places, and in case of children it is usually their school. This damages the reputation of Pakistan as well. Therefore, it is high time Pakistan devise a plan to nip in bud the increasingly
