

Media has Exacerbated the Polarization in Pakistan

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Social Media has impacted the political arena in Pakistan in both positive and negative way. It has further exacerbated the polarization in the country. It should be handle carefully and standards should be set to avoid from its further political repercussions.

2. How the Social Media has Exacerbated the Polarization?

3. Social Media has given further impetus to the Political polarization

- a) Social Media plays impartially to malign others politicians.
- b) Social Media is used as a tool to share hate speeches against the rivals.

Date: _____

Day: _____

c) Social Media shields the issues of laymen and give hype to the false fabricated political issues.

d) There are no adequate standard set to control its negative part.

e) Recently, leaked audios and videos has deteriorated the reputation of politicians.

4. Social Media is playing its Part carefully to Aware the Masses

a) Social media is playing its role to aware the masses about the good and evils of their representatives.

b) It is the duty of state to educate the masses against the backdrops of these hates speeches.

c) Social Media highlights both the basic as well as other issues in front of masses.

d) The PENRA has framed specific standards and regulations to stop the sharing of malevolent data.

e) It is the role of state to penalise those who are involve in such malpractices.

S. Current is the After-math of false use of social media

a) It is true that the social media highlighted and aware the masses about news but it should demonstrate the facts.

b) It is the duty of state but the media's role is too important to impede the spread of hate speeches.

c) It gives more emphasize on the political propoganda.

e) Even the PENRA is not operating in true letter and

Day: _____

spirit

e) Social media is a significant source of information sharing, the government cannot suppress it completely

5. Conclusion