

Masooma Malik

Is Pakistan Ready for Digital Revolution?

1) Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2) Crunch Paragraph

3) Pakistan is not ready for digital revolution (Thesis)

- a) Lack of political will of stakeholders
- b) Taxing for Pakistan's fragile economy
- c) Digital revolution is not gender neutral
- d) Pakistan is struggling to survive economically
- e) Lack of funds for digital innovation

4) Several initiatives have been taken despite hindrance (Anti-Thesis)

- a) Government already devised a digital policy
- b) Many e-commerce ventures made in roads to Pakistan
- c) Digitelization has given voice to women
- d) Digital advancement can help to bring massive FDI
- e) Many disciplines in the fields of IT included in universities

- 5) Current initiatives are not enough for Pakistan's digital readiness (Synthesis)
- a) Such policies remain limited to manifestos of political parties
 - b) Most of the digital application companies wind up their operations in Pakistan
 - c) Women in Pakistan have little access to technology
 - d) For substantial inflow of FDI, economic stability is crucial
 - e) Lack of research on technology and innovation in educational institutions
- 6) Conclusion