

human development and economic sustainability

Outline

- 1- Introduction: Thesis statements - Human development and economic sustainability move together. In fact, human development like qualitative educational system, healthcare system, urbanization leads to economic sustainability in the form of employment, public profits, industrialization etc. Thus, some steps be adopted to promote sustainable human development for economic prosperity.
- 2- Concept of human development and economic sustainability
- 3- An image of human development
 - a) A good, qualitative educational system
 - b) Better healthcare system for proper health
 - c) Sustainable urbanization in dense population
 - d) Development of clean and sustainable environment: forestation
 - e) Well-disciplined public transport system
 - f) Clean drinking water facility and hygiene in public sector
- 4- Human development leads to economic sustainability
 - a) The generation of educated youth participate in employment
 - b) Better healthcare system saves economic expenditures

- c) Sustainable urbanization promotes industrialization
- d) Clean environment reduces public sector expenditures
- e) Well-disciplined transport system protects public infrastructure, lives, fiscal etc etc
- f) Hygiene and cleanliness reforms human capital for economic sustainability

5. Some steps to strengthen human development for economic sustainability

- a) Focusing on sound and consensus oriented public policies
 - b) Allocating adequate budget for educational and healthcare system
 - c) Ensuring accountability and transparency in capacity of the government machinery
 - d) Enhancing mass media awareness to make public role in maintenance of development.
- 6- Conclusion