

Higher education in Pakistan: ill and remedies

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis paragraph

2- Council paragraph

3- Backdraws of Higher Education System in Pakistan.

- a) Less opportunities of scholarship for the poor deserving candidates.
- b) Increase seats in quota system and injustice with the local students.
- c) Unnecessary academic stress leads to depression and decrease self confidence level and demotivation.
- d) Less number of Educational Institutes for increase number of students.
- e) The use of old traditional methods of teachings rather advanced technology.
- f) Increase ratio of western culture promotion instead of promoting Islamic and Pakistani culture.

4- Remedies for Improving Higher Education System in Pakistan.

- a) Introduction of Advanced technology for various as
 - i - For smart learning and latest research.
 - ii - Fair Admission process on merit base.
 - iii - Computerized testing system as a justice with deserving candidates.

decrease number of seats in Quota system so locals will be preferred.

- c) special scholarship programmes for poor deserving candidates to pursue higher education.
- d) focus on development of Intellectual capabilities rather using old cramming methods of learning.
- e) Promotion of Islamic and traditional culture rather western culture.
- f) Complete elimination of Corruption from educational Institutes

Way forward.

- Better education brings better citizens.
- Improvement in Educational System will enhance capabilities not only of present generation but also the upcoming ones.

Conclusion