

Topic: Is feminism a clearly understood concept in our society?

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement

It is a debate that feminism is completely understood or misunderstood concept in our society. Feminism is a misunderstood concept in our society, as negative meanings are taken out of it. Through creating awareness among masses, feminism can be understood in its true sense.

2. What depicts the term 'Feminism'?

3. Feminism is not an understood concept in our society,

a. Feminists are considered Anti-Men

b. Feminists are ~~are~~ considered responsible for spreading vulgarity as, they demanded their freedom

c. Men cannot be feminists

d. Women are considered weak, cannot be involved in outdoor activities

e. Social backlash i.e. violence attacks on feminist protests

4. Despite misconceptions, feminism is a clearly understood concept in our society,

- a. Feminism is regarded as advocacy of equal rights for women as men's
- b. Women's freedom and independence is obligatory for development of society
- c. Many men are supporting women in achieving gender equality
- d. Women are dominating even in men-dominated fields
- e. Feminist movements have progressed a lot in recent times.

5. Despite some advocacy of feminism, it is still a misunderstood concept in our society,

- a. Women's demand for equal rights is considered their dominance over men
- b. Women's independence is considered not acceptable to our patriarchal society
- c. Majority of our society is patriarchal, so men cannot support women in getting to them equal rights
- d. Women are still not allowed to get her basic rights i.e. education, health etc

e. Feminist movements were legally petitioned ^{in court} ~~in~~ ^{to} fight for its ban

6. Conclusion