

Threat of division in Pak Forces

OR Date

Division in Pakistani Society

The author says that extreme moral and emotional pressure on Pak army can destroy their discipline and unity. This pressure was only possible if Pakistani soldiers did not get order from high authority to protect their country from US attacks. Some of the soldiers and officers are not happy with acceptance of US demands. This is due to past attacks of US forces on Pak army. If it causes division within army or increases Islamic extremism then it would result in civil war. Whole nation can suffer due to it. The author said that Pakistani society has multiple dimension of division. ~~The~~ Author quoted the words of young Lahore executive, Ali Hassan.

He told him that writing Pakistani people is hard. ~~be~~ These people are divided based on culture, sectarianism, cast system and so on. If one factor is resolved then other factor would arise.
