

Essay outlines.

Topic: Environmental, economic and social threats of climate change, and ways to counter it.

1- Introduction:

Thesis statement: The climate change is posing serious threats, which needs remedies. Impacts of the climate change have been intensified due to the lack of attention to the problem. Robust steps to adopt the much needed measures can mitigate the climate change.

2- How climate change is posing threats that requires remedies.

3- Factors responsible for the intensification of climate change.

a- Large scale deforestation across the region.

b- Rapid increase in the emission of greenhouse gases

c- Air pollution due to the outdated transportation system

d- Solid waste from agriculture, domestic and agriculture sectors damaging the atmosphere.

4- Major economic, environmental and social threats of climate change a- Massive floods and droughts causing loss to the agriculture sectors

②

b. Damage to the infrastructure harms the economic growth of a country

c. Rising temperature making humans use more air conditioners and cooling appliances

d. Abused air quality and damage to the water resources

e. Massive damage to the human life

f. Poverty and displacement from major parts of the country

5- Adaptation and mitigation measures to tackle the risks of climate change

a. Large scale forestation and afforestation to tackle the carbon emission

b. Encouraging the modern transport systems (electric vehicles)

c. Enhancing the use of clean energy sources

d. Improving solid waste management in the urban centers and industrial areas

e. Making people aware about the seriousness of climate change

f. Increasing the use of advance technology in agriculture and in urban conception

6- conclusion: