DIALOGUE: PAST PAPER 2016:-

Rewriting the dialogue in a Paragraph form:

Helen asked Mr West what had happened to John. Mr West replied that he had left the company. Helen then asked curiously about his action and Mr West replied carelessly that he had asked him for a rise which he had rejected. After which Helen again asked curiously why he had not gave him a rise. Mr. West told him that he was lazy. Helen then asked that whether he had found another job. Mr. West responded positively that he was working in a film company. While asking further about his new job, Helen asked about his salary upon which Mr West said with partial surity that he might have earned a quite a lot. Lastly, Helen asked whether he liked the new job while Mr West replied that he didn't know.
