

Topic: Hyper-globalization: A threat to Human Prosperity: - black inks only

→ Rough presentation → use blue inks only

Outlines only

Outline :-

(1) Introduction.

Thesis Statement

(2) Crunch Paragraph.

(3) Economic Inequality

(A) Explanation of economic globalization. → relevance heading?

(B) Discussion of income and wealth inequality trends. → clarify

(C) Statistics highlighting global income disparities due to exacerbating economic inequality.

(D) Erosion of labour rights and widening income gaps.

(E) Health and Educational disparities.

(4) Cultural Homogenization.

(A) Importance of cultural diversity and cultural identities. → relevance heading?

~~(B)~~ Dominance of western culture and consumerism.

~~(C)~~ loss of ^{local} cultural heritage and languages.

~~(D)~~ Cultural imperialism and loss of cultural richness due to social disintegration and cultural bidlash.

(5) Environmental Sustainability.

(A) The role of hyper-globalism in exacerbating environmental issues. → Genetic to be read → (B) Overconsumption of waste? due to unsustainable practices.

(C) Threats to biodiversity and ecosystems

(D) Health impacts on humans due to pollution.

(6) Loss of Sovereignty

(A) leading cause of loss of sovereignty for nations.

(B) Corporations leading to influence government policies.

(C) Threat to democracy and accountability.

(7) Conclusion

subheadings in outline are mostly generic, overlapping and irrelevant

Thesis statement

Hyper-globalisation poses a significant threat to human prosperity due to its potential negative impacts on ~~society~~ economic equality, cultural homogenization, environmental sustainability, and loss of sovereignty.

↑
good