

Identify the Type of Essay.

1) Attack on ideology as a potent tool of hybrid warfare.

o expository.

2) Wrong is wrong even when everyone is doing it; right is right even when no one is doing it.

o abstract, open ended.

3) Biases may change, but prejudices are permanent.

o abstract.

4) Youth bulge in Pak: an asset or liability?

o argumentative

5) Who has benefited more from globalization: developed or developing countries?

o argumentative.

6) Choose your enemies carefully as you would end up being like them.

o abstract

7. Influence of brand consciousness on consumerism.

expository.

8) Dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other.

expository.

a) Nuclear risk anywhere is a challenge to peace everywhere.

expository.

good very good segmentation

b) success or popularity - what drives youth?
argumentative.

Religious extremism as a political tool.

Religious extremism has been used as a political tool since many decades. Certain political parties use the religion to gain popularity in the societies where people are sensitive to the matter of religion. They gain the massive support from the locals and use it to their own benefit. Rise of Afghan Taliban was fueled by religious extremism. They were supported by majority people. Resultantly, they established their government in Afghanistan. This has proved to be an impactful tool to achieve political interest.

Media shapes the popular opinion.

Media, whether print or digital has always been used to shape the opinion of the public. Presenting people believe the information presented on the media without verifying or questioning it. Presenting limited information and hiding some facts can result in <sup>shaping</sup> popular opinion. During the time of 9/11, the western media presented the news of the incident in such a way that pushed forward the idea of Muslims being terrorists. Media is such a powerful tool that can mould the opinion of the public of any situation in any way it desires.

u need to cover a lot of journey for improving english expression