

Economy or politics: Pakistan Conundrum outline

Introduction

a) Thesis Statement:

The Conundrum between economy and politics in Pakistan is a debatable and long-standing issue. This has significantly affected the development and stability of the country. It is needed to maintain a balance between Economy and politics to stabilize the country.

b) Overview of economy and politics of Pakistan

c) Economy is a conundrum of Pakistan (T) as

a) Decline in the production of agricultural products.

b) Crippling situation of manufactured products.

c) Devolution of PKR again and again

d) Some departments are burden on the country.

e) Lack of trust from trade partners.

d) politics is a conundrum of Pakistan. (Anti thesis)

You need to relate conundrum to each sector that how economic conundrum is impact overall country

a) ill planned of politician is responsible for low production

b) Biased political system create problems for the economy.

c) Faulty Decision of politician cause currency devaluation

d) Involvement of private sector which was run by politician

e) politicians think about their interest not for the country.

e) Despite Dirty politics Economy is a serious conundrum for Pakistan. (Synthesis)

a) Impacts of climate change cause low production.

b) The position of international

~~Foreign or other sources~~

organization affect manufacturing sector

c) Main Decision were taken by Global power

d) Private Sector gave a positive outcome but cannot stabilize economy.

e) International agency are working to stabilize Pakistan

Conclusion:

Synthesis part is not addressed well

You need to counter anti thesis and support thesis In an elaborative way in this part