

TOPIC: "Dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other"

OUTLINE

Mashal

redundant

1) Introduction

Thesis statement:

Dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other in terms of their distinct features (posses by their government). Family-oriented power potential, nepotism and erosion of meritocracy are some attributes posed by dynastic rule to democracy. whereas, through democratic response like: ensuring accountability and transparency, promoting anti-dynastic legislation and strengthening civil society and media the challenge can be reversed.

use a word having negative connotations

2) How dynastic rule and democracy challenge each other.

3) Features of Democracy

- A) Rule of law
- B) Protecting rights
- C) Ensuring law and order

Redundant

4) Attributes of Dynastic Rule

- A) Family based political power
- B) Promoting family members
- C) Nepotism and Favouritism

5) Challenges posed by dynastic rule to democracy

- A) Erosion of meritocracy
- B) Potential for corruption
- C) Concentration of power within a few families use a word with negative connotations

- D) Threat to democratic principles → generic
- E) Violation of fundamental rights
- F) Social injustice and inequality
- G) Imbalances law and order situation
- H) Lack of Accountability and Transparency

Add more sub-headings

- I) Democracy response to dynastic rule
 - A) Implementing Anti-dynastic legislation
 - B) Promoting political party transparency and accountability
 - C) Strengthening civil society and media

How democracy challenges dynastic rule

J) conclusion

topic understanding is good but content is not comprehensive improvement of presentation write on lined paper