Is Pakistan ready for digitalization.

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement

2- Crunch Paragraph

Not Yet taught!

3- Pakistan being caught by multifaceted problems is not ready for digitalization. (Thesis)

a) Prominent Global Indices revealed Pakistan as state of "Digital Emergency" → This is evidence not argument

b) As world is trying for metaverse, Pakistan struggles with reliable digital access to citizens.

c) Despite being mobile-first economy, half of population lacks smartphones.

d) Pakistan owing very few Dearth of state of-the-art information technology universities

e) Pakistan's poor standing in terms of digital access for females. — synonymous

4- Deficiencies in Pakistan's digital ecosystem are glaring but they donot take away positive developments (Antithesis)

a) Extensive and encompassing Government's vision of "Digital Pakistan"

b) World economic forum sees Pakistan as "Dark horse" in digitalization race → Argument? ←

c) Chinese largest e-commerce market accelerated process of digitalization in Pakistan.

d) Pakistan being the first country in South Asia to allow branchless banking.

e) KP assembly passed "Mera Bacha Alert" phone app for security of females → Generalize it [3]

5- To meet its dream of digitalization Pakistan needs principal measures (synthesis)

a) Vision of "Digital Pakistan" without digital literacy and skills? Failed. → clarify

b) Pakistan needs to learn what? from counterparts India and Bangladesh for digitalisation.

c) Lack of research, unskilled work force — Pakistan couldn't keep pace with digital dynamics

d) Pakistan substandard infrastructure resulted in downfall of internet subscriptions.

e) Twice (74%) as many females (74%) than men (35%) donot own phones. → repetition

6- Conclusion.