

Topic: Gender Equality is a Myth

OUTLINE

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement

Gender equality remained a myth, as women are not given equal status to men and still considered as inferior creature to men. Gender equality can be turned into reality by giving equal opportunities to females in education, health, politics and society.

2. Debunking the word 'Myth'

3. Facts which proved that Gender equality is a Myth,

- Women are still not given general seats on population basis in parliament
- Not elected on executive seats in politics and governance.
- Paid less than men for same working hours
- Working women are not given relaxation in household chores
- Disparity of number between men and women in legislative bodies

f. Women are not given hereditary shares

Clarify

g. Not getting equal representation on economic forums

h. Literacy rate of women is still very ~~less~~ <sup>lower</sup> than men

i. Women labour force participation is less than that of men

4. Why gender equality has not become a reality yet

a. Patriarchal mindset of society has not changed yet

b. Religious misinterpretation poses restrictions on women

c. Laws regarding workplace harassment are not <sup>being</sup> implemented

d. Women are facing domestic violence

e. Lack of economic reforms for their equal participation

5. How gender equality can be achieved,

a. Restructuring of the society to give equal status to women as men

b. Proper implementation of workplace law for their efficient working

Outline is not comprehensive

e. Law should be constructed to Give equal pay wages as men.

✓
6. Conclusion

Refine writing expression by reading quality
material