TOPIC: Treating children with affection.

this sentence is unclear and needs restructuring

Contemporary education ~~is~~ excessively emphasize on the disadvantages of lack of interaction with children; failing to highlight the benefits of spending quality-time with kids. Moreover, the natural attraction towards kids bound children to surrender their stubbornness peacefully. Children must not be treated amicably to achieve any hidden motive but on the basis of pure instincts. Instructors with such attributes can mould children's actions without affecting their mental health. However, it would be difficult for a full-time teacher to build natural fondness towards kids. Furthermore, the company of the children is
