

Q#02:

Write a precis of the following passage and also suggest a suitable title:
(Manto ... enthusiasm).

Manto and his writings

~~Author told that~~ Manto was socially victimized. His opponents showed him as a vulgar person and questioned the morality of his writings. But without being affected, he consistently explored the realities of life. He got irritated over the discrimination of classes in society. So, through his writings he showed his concern on ethical issues for the lower classes of the society. According to Manto, man was a mixture of good and bad deeds. He also made a connection with his readers and in his work, people found their shadow -
