

The author ~~explains~~^{ed} the concept of Civil Society ~~by saying~~ that it is a place where people gather for the discussion on common goal, for the welfare of Society and learn tolerance against social differences.

single sentence ans is not correct it is incorrect format

Q 2

Civil Society ~~strive~~^s towards better socialization ^{by tolerance} because it ~~teach~~^s the concept of diversity ~~and~~, how to appreciate and put up with social differences. They ~~learn~~^{who} ~~how~~ to give more importance to their common goals like games, social interaction etc.

Q 3

Social Capital is a ~~term~~ that ~~basically~~ refers to the members ~~or~~ residents of that society, ~~that~~ develop sense of social trust and ~~mutual obligation~~

single sentence ans and it is too short

Date: _____

Mon Tue Wed Thu Fri Sat

for the proper functioning of society.

Q.4

Civil Society assume the role of a public stake holder because it influence politicians and the other residents of community through complains and meeting to seek their attention for the betterment of the society.

Q.5

The state of civil society is ~~weak~~ weakening because its all works are voluntary and other people are losing interest in joining these societies.

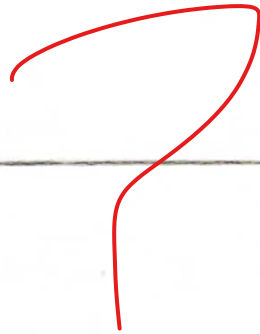

basic grammar and sentence structure is too weak incorrect format of answers and ans are too short need improvement not satisfactory at all 0/20

what type of para is this?? a precise or ???

Civil Society is a place of discussion on different issues and a place where people spend their spare time, in watching and playing games. Their discussion usually starts from one topic and ~~and~~ eventually encircle all topics ^{from} local and international. Other social interaction places also have some aim to make people good citizens.

In civil society people have different opinion on same issues. In such cases they learn patience and how to put up social differences, by giving more importance to their organization. As a result they learn social trust and obligation. They work for public interest and safety and security of these interests. They also act as a stakeholder because of its influence the stakeholder for the welfare of society. But now-a-days, it is declining because of its voluntary nature and less people interest.

The greatest people are often poor, because poverty enhances their qualities and moral values. Therefore, for such people, difficult tasks are usually easy. History is infested with such people who are courageous, honest and great but poor. The poor are not greedy. Poverty is produced by GOD and is considered as respectable. In contrast to misery which is man-made and objectionable. Although, the poor are living happy life but no one wants to be poor.

Poverty: Blessing for humanity.

Poverty And Double Standard of Society.

(74)

title is written at the top not the end

word count is written in sentence form

over all main idea is picked and discussed need improvement in basic

grammar 5/20