

Corruption in Pakistan

1) Introduction

Thesis statement:

Corruption is one of the major problems of Pakistan, it has paralysed different sectors of the state, ~~that~~ urgent measures are needed to curb this menace.

2) Causes of corruption in Pakistan

- a) Lack of accountability promotes corruption
- b) High inflation compels the society to be corrupt
- c) Politicization of institutions increases corruption
- d) Feudal mindset causes corruption
- e) Creed of materialism provokes man to be corrupt
- f) Lack of knowledge prevails corruption
- g) Corruption Poverty involves the society in corruption

3) Effects of corruption

- a) Corrupt state depends on their ~~org~~ financing organisations to run their state affairs
- b) Each and every sector of the state becomes paralyzed on account of corruption
- c) Corruption stops the development of country
- d) It creates a bad image of the country in the world
- e) Corruption destroys the economy of the state
- f) Investors hesitate to invest in a corrupt sovereignty
- h) The gap between poor and the rich is widened due to corruption

4) Wayforward/Remedies

- a) Reorganization of anti corruption institutions
- b) Strict punishment for corrupt persons is the need of the time
- c) Depoliticization of state institutions can hinder corruption
- d) Strong and comprehensive steps are needed to end feudalism
- e) Increase in salaries of government officials can prevent them from corruption
- f) Positive role of media could discourage corrupt practices
- g) Social campaign against corruption may curb this menace

5) Conclusion