

means about? start with the statement of the question

Ans The writer means that <sup>day/date:</sup> beauty is not an extra thing we choose or please, it is an integral part of every action a man does or of everything in life. ~~It is visible in the action~~ ~~It becomes visible in~~ It is visible in all actions of a man as it can be seen in all natural things. Hence, beauty is present in all things and it is not a choice.

no clear sense of this sentence

4. What does the writer actually mean when

5. Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree?

Ans Beauty and art does affect <sup>our</sup> practical and moral values. ~~It puts~~ They satisfy our spiritual desires. An action filled of morality makes us happy so does actions ~~or~~ filled of beauty. Hence, they affect our life positively and lack of them leaves us ~~un~~ unsatisfied.

this ans is also unclear not satisfactory ans

① What has been lamented in the text?

Ans. The text explains that whatever action is to be performed should have beauty in it. For example, if someone does a moral action, it should have morality in it as it is the beauty of it. The beauty is what the action of a man means, for example, a scientist should know what he has to do. So, the passage tells that we a person should know what he has done and how to do it.

② What is the difference between an ordinary man and an artist?

Ans. The difference between an artist and an ordinary man is that the artist is a man who knows about the beauty of an action and puts it into it. He also exercises his actions precisely and continually which a normal man does not. So, whatever action he does he puts beauty in it.

③ How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

Ans. We can make our ~~lives~~ lives beautiful and charming by putting beauty in our actions and ~~appreciate~~ appreciating appreciating the artist's work as it satisfies our spiritual desire.

④ What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?