Introduction

When did Pakistan come into being Pakistan faced many challenges economically socially. Indian Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru withheld Seventy lack Pakistani Rupees. There are some ways that can help in boosting Pakistani economy. Pakistan's economy can be strengthened by collection of Revenue and reformation in F.B.R., Lessen government expenditure and Promotion of tourism industries. Economy of Pakistan can be flourished by remittance and financial aid from friendly countries and world institutions.

Another point to strengthen economy is through digitalisation of economy and Political stability and eradication of terrorism and women empowerment and technical education to youth. Another view is why Pakistan's economy is weak.

because Pakistan is facing many challenges no one is corruption and terrorism and tax evasion which has gained ground in Pakistan's economy. Hawala, Hundi, shortage of dollars and a lack of technical education in institutions and evasion of investors which have ruined the economy of Pakistan. Hence it can be said Pakistan is facing many challenges but economy of Pakistan can be flourished by adopting these measures.
