

Date: _____

World peace is the choice of super- powers

Outline

I- Introduction

Thesis statement.

The choice for world peace is not just an option; it is an ethical imperative on the part of superpowers to redefine the course of humanity for the attainment of perpetual peace.

II- The relation between superpowers and world peace

III- How world peace is the choice of superpowers?

(a) Highlighting cold peace to avoid new cold war

Date: _____

(b) Restoration of world peace through US-China cooperation

(c) Strengthening the role of UN in combating the conflict

(d) Prioritizing diplomacy over confrontation

(e) Identifying the power of economic cooperation

Case in point: Positive role of BRI and IMEC

(f) Respecting the sovereignty and territorial integrity of all countries

(g) Fostering on nuclear disarmament as a pinnacle for peaceful intent

(h) Leveraging soft power to re-orient preferences

Date: _____

(i) Publicising climate change mitigation solution

(ii) Collaborative efforts towards non-state actors

(k) Actualizing universal principles as a basis for collaborative efforts toward global peace

Case in point: Advocacy for human rights, rule of law, democracy

IV- Hurdles preventing superpowers from navigating the world peace

(a) Machiavellian concept of attaining power at the expense of humanity

(b) Stockpiling and developing nuclear armaments at an unprecedented pace

Date: _____

(c) Cold relations among superpowers and their vested interests

(d) The rise of non-state actors undermining the global peace effort.

(e) Undue influence of major powers on international organizations

Case in point: USA's continuous usage of veto power on Palestine issue

V- What measures should superpowers adopt in promoting peace?

(a) Negating hard power tactics in countering conflicts

(b) Unbiased role of global organizations

(c) Collaborative efforts of superpowers in real spirit

VI Conclusion