Q. Rewrite the following dialogue, written indirect speech, in a paragraph form.

Jack : Oh ! Hang all examination ! I do not worry about mine. What is the use of them , any way ?

Swarup : Well , you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination ; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack : And pray what good will graduation do you ? You may get a clerkship in a government office ; but that's all , and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees , and are no near getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup : That may be so , but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain any degree , as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties .

Jack exclaimed with frustration , expressing his lack of concern about his own exam and also questioning the utility of exam. Swarup pointed out the importance of passing examination to get a degree and show his wish to become graduate. Jack questioned his expectation about graduation and tells him that he will hardly get a clerk job in government office . He highlighted the fact where individuals held degrees but struggle to find any kind of employment. Swarup acknowledged his point of view but state that his first goal in studying was not only to pass exam or earn degree , to enrich his mind with knowledge and enhance his intellectual capabilities .
