

Preis - 2024

Urban Green Spaces Important for human and environment

Urban green spaces provide relaxation in busy life. Greenery ~~provide~~ ^{create} balance between urban development and environment protection. City park play major role in transforming community association. People gather for joyfull activities which enhance the urban experience. Urban green spaces improved air quality and reduce environmental degradation.

However, balancing the urbanization and the protection of green spaces ~~are~~ ^{is} the biggest challenge. Maintenance of the green park become positive input on human and environment. With the Evaluation of cities, the protection of green spaces become a shared responsibility. The vision to create sustainable ^{development} environment for human well-being and environmental protection.

words: 100