

Precise & Composition

2016

Rewrite the following dialogue, written in indirect speech, in a paragraph form.

Helen: Mr West, what's happened to John?

Mr West: He's left the company

Helen: Why he has done that?

Mr West: Because he was lazy.

Helen: Has he found another job?

Mr West: I think he earns quite a lot.

Helen: Does he like the new job?

Mr West: I don't know.

Answer:

Helen surprisingly asked Mr West, what the job happen was. Regretfully, he answered that he had left the company. Helen asked that why he had done that. Mr West replied that he was lazy. He asked if he had found another job. He said that he had earned quite a lot. Helen acquired if he had liked the new job. He replied that ~~He~~ did not know.

---

2018

Fatima Riaz

063

Assignment

Rewrite the following dialogue, written in direct speech, in a paragraph form.

Jack: Hello, Swarup! Swatting away as usual. Come out, man; shut up your old books, and come and have a game of tennis.

Swarup: I am sorry I cannot do that, Jack. The examination is drawing near, and I want every hour I can get for study.

Jack: Oh! Hang all examination! I don't worry about mine. What is the use of them, anyway?

Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort. That may be so; but I am not studying <sup>so much</sup> to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

Answer.

Jack greeted Swarup and <sup>said</sup> told that close his books and come with me to play tennis. He apologized due to his nonaccessibility because his exam was approaching and wanted to utilize his time for study. Jack replied that I did not worry about my exams. By the way, what the use of examination was. He answered his question that you could not get a degree if you didn't pass the examination. I had set my heart on being graduate.

He criticized him what would his graduation do. You might get clerkship in a government office, that was all, there were hundreds of fellows who had their degrees but did not get any kind of job.

Swarup told that might be possible but he was not studying to just pass the examination or get any degree rather to store my mind with knowledge and develop his intellectual faculties.