

English Essay

"Frailty: thy name is Woman"

outline

- 1 Introduction
- 2 Origin of the statement
- 3 Why women are considered Frail

(i) Biological Reasons:

• Lesser muscular strength as compared to man

(ii) Social Reasons:

• Authoritative society compelling women to submissive

(iii) Political Reasons:

Less Percentage of woman representation in Parliament

- 4 How Today's Women are not Frail.

(i) Role in Politics:

Examples: Benazir Bhutto and Fatima Jinnah.

_ _ _ 3x

(ii) Women as Administrator.

• Examples: Kamala Harris & Sanna

Marin

(iii) Woman's role in literature:

• Role of Harper Lee and Toni Morrison in the field of literature.

(iv) Woman in the world of Science.

→ Rosalind Franklin; contributed to the discovery of structure of DNA.

(v) Role of Women in sports.

• Achievements of Serena Williams in tennis.

• Mary Kom; A successful Boxer.

5 What are the Hurdles in the Women empowerment:

- (i) violence against woman
- (ii) Lack of education of masses
- (iii) Cultural and social norms
- (iv) Gender inequality

6 How could be the women be empowered.

(i) We should educate our people.

(ii) We should strengthen and empower the women economically.

(iii) Should break the gender stereotypes in work place and build diversity.

7

Critical Analysis.

8

Conclusion.

---