

satisfaction. However, it is not an easy task to crown each and every task, but possible, because hardships ups and downs, happiness and grief are all along with the conqueror. There is also a celebrated proverb that "uneasy lies the head that wears the crown". Therefore, one should not be pessimistic while achieving any aim in life. As the Holy Quran tells that "Verily, with every hardship comes ease".

My aim in life.

Since ages, everything has been assigned for the specific task or aim in life to complete. Including humans, they also came to perform the drama. Each of one of them, mentally or physically is beneficiary to one another. Some are mentally superior over the physically one. or vice versa. To river the world affair smoothly, humans are born with their identical aims of life. Some are born to fight in a war like Hitler, other ~~was~~ grew to derise for peace like mandela. Some are mushroomed like Qabeel and other arised like Holy Prophet P.B.U.H. Having a status of dot like in a world of species i also have an aim in life, that is, to conquer the broken hearts to heal the ailing one, to help the needy, to spread the happiness among unhappy people and to be a man of proud and
