Man who is sent to earth as the true representative of God Almighty enters peace after submitting himself before Allah willingly. Islam is not a forceful religion.

"There is no compulsion in religion" (Surah Baqarah)

Definition of Muslim:-

A person who submits himself to Allah and accepts to follow Deen-e-Islam in its true essence is regarded as Muslim. He has to believe that Allah Alone is the creator and sustainer (Tawheed) and Prophethood of all prophets. Along with it, he is to affirm finality of prophet (P.B.U.H).

Not only this, he is to accept all the revelations sent upon prophets and His guardian angels (Malaiqa) and Day of Judgement (Akhirah). (Iman Muffasal)

One who accepts these pillars of Islam is known to have faith (Iman). In these is said to be a Muslim.

"but he" (7:65)

Try to add the Arabic of quranic
ayats

In another verse Allah said;

"We sent every community a prophet saying "Worship Allah and avoid false gods". (16:36)

Prophet Mohammad himself said that,

"I have been commanded to fight people until they accept that there is no god but Allah and Mohammad is His Prophet."

One reference is enough for a single argument

Surah Ikhlas always declares God's unity and Tawhid.

"Say, "He is Allah, the only one Allah; the one taking care of everything.

He did not give birth, he was not born.

And he never had any equal at all."

(Surah Al-Ikhlās - Quran)

2. Prophethood:

Prophethood synchronizes with Risalah or messengership of Allah and encampuses the means by which Allah communicates with His creation. Thus belief in the prophethood is the necessity of Iman.

Mohammad is not the father of one of your men, but the messenger of Allah and the Seal of Prophet. (33:40)

Nowadays, muslims are guided by Quran and also by Hadiths - saying of prophet and thus prophethood continues to influence Muslims way of life. Also these prophets are perfect models of ideal human behaviours.

"And the Prophet himself does not say anything, rather he says what he is commanded by Allah." (Hujrat)
