

(No Good Options)

Since 7 October 2023, Israel is carrying <sup>out</sup> brutal attack on Gaza, killing almost more than 39000 people, <sup>where</sup> majority of them are civilians and minor. Adding to Israel <sup>Israeli</sup> crimes, further restrictions on Gaza's aid assistance including medical supplies and killing of aid workers. ~~Further,~~ Apart from that, West so-called peace lovers were silent over complete <sup>scenarios</sup> ~~scenarios~~. When things change ~~d~~ from bad to worse, the bold step was taken by S. Africa that filed a case in International court of justice and demanded for immediate ~~ceasefire~~ <sup>ceasefire</sup>. However, continuous use of Veto power by US ~~that~~ <sup>has</sup> further <sup>given</sup> ~~approved~~ green signal to <sup>Israel</sup> ~~carry on~~ <sup>to continue</sup> more attacks and bombings.

Moreover, growing pressure from the people, ~~for the~~ <sup>has</sup> West and ~~Israel~~ <sup>has</sup> led US to abstain ~~on~~ <sup>from</sup> ~~the~~ SC ~~that~~ resolution of 25 march that called for immediate ceasefire.

This leads very bad impact for PM - Netanyahu who, already lost his popularity and respect. The desperate move from Netanyahu to attack Iranian embassy in Damascus on April - 1 to divert attention of people from Gaza to Iran.
In retaliation to that, Iran also fired hundreds of drones and missiles which Israel claimed that these were handled before reaching on target. ~~Seemingly~~, <sup>Resultantly,</sup> ~~Substantly~~, Nothing happened by this desperate move. First, US clearly ~~was~~ instructed Israel to prevent wider-war. Second, both the countries have tested each others power capability. ~~and~~ Third, The move was to drag US into war was failed.

Work on grammar and sentence structure
Keep writing