

Do Pakistani women have the equal chances as men

Outlines:

Introduction:-

Hook

"Pakistani women are the backbone of society" said the great Pakistani lawyer and human rights activist Asma Jahangir.

General statement

Thesis: For

In the last few decades, Pakistani women have been contributing in the real development of society by acquiring equal opportunities but several challenges still persist in terms of access to education, participation in politics, freedom of speech and ~~many~~ economic challenges.

main Body:

I Patriarchal society of Pakistan

- 1 cultural norms and stereotypes
- 2 Domestic violence is often rooted in patriarchal attitudes
- 3 Honor killing and harassment
- 4 ~~no~~ limited freedom of speech

Also give counter-narrative

Add remedial measures as well

Keep writing by following proper structure

II Limited access to education

- 1 Poverty is a major challenge for girls ~~education~~ in acquiring education
- 2 Long distance from school
- 3 Security issues
- 4 Pakistan's female literacy rate: Lowest globally

III Women's economic challenges

- 1 Lack of conducive policy support
- 2 Low wages
- 3 Mobility and access to transport
- 4 Lowest female labour force participation in South Asia

IV Political representation

- 1 women in politics frequently endure derogatory comments, harassment and threats
- 2 ~~Limited~~ lack of the right to vote in rural areas
- 3 less reserved seats in national and provincial assemblies as compared to men
- 4 illiteracy and lack of awareness