

There are many grounds that make my city the best city of the country. First <sup>is</sup> its peace and harmony among the residents. <sup>Though</sup>, there live various religious ethnicities. Second, the law and order in my city is applaudable. It is because it is a countryside city of 5000 people. Due to small population and tolerance among people, has fortunately fashioned our city, free from crimes. Third, it is an uncontaminated area. Therefore, inhabitants have low prospects of diseases which ultimately aggrandize the progress of the city. Finally, the education system of my city is according to the International Standards Classification of Education. To conclude, my city is the best city <sup>due to</sup> its peace, law and order, low level of pollution, and International standard education.

unassay and incorrect use of commas basic grammar and sentence structure is weak need improvement
read express tribune articles and carefully observe the basics

3/10