

Title: Is Pakistan ready for a digital Revolution?

DATE: / /

a) Introduction

'Pakistan's regressive attitude towards the internet makes it no where near ready to capitalize on the digital revolution.'

b) Current State of Digital/Internet medium in Pakistan?

c) Why the Pakistani state is not ready for a digital revolution?

- a) Bureaucratic hurdles impede any progress
- b) Regressive Internet Laws.
- c) Lack of Broadband connectivity (coverage)
- d) Low Internet users and penetration
- e) School & curricula is out of touch with modern requirements.

d) Why the Pakistani society is not ready for a digital revolution?

- a) Traditional work/employments are preferred over tech jobs.
- b) Tech workers contribute in gig economy and not in software development
- c) women parity and participation is dismal
- d) Unskilled and uneducated youth
- e) Lack of entrepreneurial skills

DATE: ___/___/___

a) Way forward and solutions for preparing Pakistan?

a) Increasing Internet penetration and coverage

b) Decreasing gender gap in internet penetration

c) Overhauling curriculum of schools

d) Fast-tracking approvals for new IT business

e) Cultivating a startup friendly financial environment

f) Changing the ecosystem from gig workers to product developers

b) Conclusion