

Precis 2016

Title: A Trip to Cherokee

On the last holidays, the writer was finding it difficult to decide a place to visit. He became excited on the advise of his friend to visit Cherokee. In Cherokee they both visited a ~~too~~ town called Qualla Boundary. A town with immense natural beauty and its old way of living reflects Cherokee's history. They went to a shop full on ancient artifacts. Shop owner invited them for a dinner and tell them about his work. He told them that in old season villagers work hard to earn money through an event called Bingo weekend. At last they ~~visit~~ visited a museum which showed Cherokee's past. After returning home he missed that place and intended to visit another unfamiliar place ~~in~~ next time as well.

Word Count = 122