

Peace :

Peace is a fundamental and cherish state that goes beyond the conflict. It includes harmony, understanding, cooperation among individuals, communities and nations.

Achieving peace needs an environment where empathy, respect exist.

True peace needs justice and equality. Where everyone's rights are respected. It builds relationships between societies for mutual growth. It built the world that everyone can live with security and hope.