

Sadiq-OB66

Precis : CSS 2021

Nizar Hassan was a Palestinian film maker. He criticized the Israeli notion of independence in his film named "Independence". During Israel's planning to annex Palestine, he produced "My Grand Father's path". In this documentary it was said that the claptrap and vulgarity of the enemies is a trap. It makes one forget his highest dreams. This documentary put Palestinians into a perspective. It saved them from falling into such traps against Zionists.

Title:- Nizar Hassan: A Palestinian Film maker