

Describe the importance of Deen in Human Life.

Differentiate between Deen and Religion.

Importance of Deen In Human Life

Guidance to the mankind

Deen provides guidance to the mankind.

Allah has sent His Prophets and Books

just for the purpose of providing guidance. The Prophets were sent so that the people may know about the truth and existence of Almighty

Allah. Similarly, the Holy Books were sent by the Allah so that the people may read them and take the necessary guidance for them.

According to a verse of Holy Quran:

وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا النَّاسَ مِنْ قُلُوبِهِمْ مَثَلًا فِي تَوَالِفِ الْقُرْآنِ
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ

(Al Quran)

which means that Allah has sent

Holy Quran and has mentioned every kind of similitude that the Human

Being can mind.

Complete Code of Life

The Deen-e-Islam covers the sacred as well as the mundane affairs. For the sacred affairs, Allah has sent his prophets and Quran but on the other hand the mundane affairs are also taught by them. For instance it is the deen which gives us the code to treat the parents, similarly this code also tells how to treat the relatives, children etc.

It is not limited to these but also provides about the affairs like marriage, divorce, Birth, death, Succession and many other things.

Meaning there by it is surely a complete code of life.

Reasons to Live

The deen serve as the biggest reason for a human being to live his life.

Meaning there by it is the primary reason to spend one's life. If we look at the secondary reasons, these can getting a high paid job, a good house and many other needs.

So if a person has no such things in life, he may think that his life is total wastage of time and these thoughts may lead him towards ending his life. But Deen will be the primary reason to live life, because he will know that Almighty Allah has created me for a purpose.

Guidance to make an Ideal Society

Deen does not only provides the guidance related to individual safety, rather it also guides us towards an ideal society. For instance, it tells us about the political system, Administrative system, Economic system and most importantly the Judicial system. If we look at these things we will observe that without these above mentioned things, no society can achieve excellence.

Deen Tells about Right and Wrong

Deen also tells us that what is right and what is wrong for a human being. And on very that basis his fate will be decided on day of judgement. As already discussed the deen is a complete code of life, so the distinction between the right and wrong is clearly stated by the Quran and Hadith of Holy Prophet (P.B.U.H)

Difference Between Deen And Religion

what is Deen?

Deen includes the sacred and mundane affairs of a Human's life.

This means that the relation of man with Almighty Allah and his creatures at the same time.

It will be no wrong to say that the deen provides the vertical as well as the horizontal relationship. Vertical relation includes man's relation with Almighty Allah, while horizontal relation means the relation with the society.

What is Religion?

Religion means the relation of man with his God. It covers only sacred matters. It includes the man's relation with God, rituals and social customs.

Religion includes the matter of Allah and his creature only and no other is involved in this.

Difference Between Deen and Religion

The first and foremost reason is that the deen has the vertical as well as the horizontal relation of human being, while the religion only includes the vertical relation.

The deen includes complete code of life including the sacred and mundane affairs of human being, while on the other hand, religion only includes the sacred affairs of human being.

Deen includes the socio-economic and political affairs as well but no such thing can be seen in the religion.

Islam is Religion or Deen?

In a prudent mind, a question will arise that if Islam is a Deen or religion. So, this can be cleared through the verses of Holy Quran, where Almighty Allah has referred Islam as Deen. For instance in a verse of Holy Quran, it is mentioned that we have completed the Deen on this day for you. Similarly this can be observed at many other places in Quran as well as Hadith.

Conclusion

The Deen has the utmost importance in the life of a human being. It is the Deen which transforms the life of a person, taking him from darkness into light. It is deen which tells him about right and wrong.

Similarly the Islam has been referred as a deen which portrays that Islam is a complete code of life, leaving no ambiguity in any affairs behind.
