Jack: Hello, Swarup! Swatting away as usual. Come out, man; shut up your old books, and come and have a game of tennis.

Swarup: I am sorry I cannot do that, Jack. The examination is drawing near, and I want every hour I can get for study.

Jack: Oh! Hang all examinations! I do not worry about mine. What is the use of them, any way?

Swarup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office; but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort.

Swarup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree, as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

However, Jack urged him not to be worried about examination like him and then he questioned the importance of examination. Swarup, passionate towards his degree calmly replied that examination is a prerequisite for a degree. Jack again criticizing, asked about the importance of graduation while mentioning the fact that many graduates are still unemployed. Swarup agreed partially to the fact but, he mentioned that obtaining a degree was not his mere objective, he wanted to build his knowledge and intellect.
