Title: Biography of Nizai Hassan

The author wrote the Biography of Nizai Hassan, who was born in 1960 in Mashhad. He was a filmmaker. In 1994, he produced a film 'Independence'. The author received a mail from Nizai Hassan, in which he talked about his new film 'My Grandfather's path'. The movie warned them to choose their friends carefully for they would end up like them. If one focused too much on vulgarity of others, he would soon become like them and would lose beauty of his ideas. The art, poetry, fiction had saved Nizai Hassan from that trap. His new movie was on brutal capturing by Israel of Palestinian rights. The movie was long but its short version must be seen on Al-Jazeera.
