Common people thinks that the country's law and its individual's independence <sup>liberty</sup> are against of each other. Apparently, this notion or idea is not wrong. Every state <sup>impose some on</sup> restricts its citizens. <sup>int</sup> If the laws of the state are abundance, then overall restrictions are also a maximum number. Individual's independence <sup>is</sup> suppressed by imposing more restrictions on them. On the contrary, if the number of laws are less then there are a maximum chances of citizens' freedom.
