

(Subject verb agreement exercise)

- (1) Each of the students have completed their assignment on time.
- (2) Neither the teacher nor the students were aware of the schedule change.
- (3) The committee debate these issues every week.
- (4) The pair of scissors are on the table.
- (5) The data shows a significant improvement in results.
- (6) The team is winning their matches this season.
- (7) Either the manager or the employees need to attend the meeting.
- (8) A number of people were interested in the project.
- (9) Mathematics is one of my favorite subjects.
- (10) The majority of the students have ~~pon~~ online classes.
- (11) Bread and butter is his favorite breakfast.
- (12) None of the information is useful.

- (13) one of the books is missing (is/are)
- (14) The number of volunteers has increased this year.
- (15) Both of the twins were excited about the trip.
- (16) The furniture in the room needs to be replaced.
- (17) Anyone who wants to join the club is welcome.
- (18) Several of the cookies have been eaten.
- (19) The flock of birds flies south for the winter.
- (20) Nobody knows the trouble I've seen.
- (21) Neither the coach nor the players were happy with the result.
- (21) Both Each of the paintings are unique.
- (22) A lot of ^{the} pie were eaten before dinner.
- (23) Somebody is waiting for you at the gate.
- (24) The family is considering a vacation
- (25) Both the dog and the cat enjoy their new toys.