

DATE: 07/08/2024

Precis

Money is just a attraction of life. But it's not the principle aim of well-educated, intellectual brave man. As soldier likes the victory and honour more than his pay. A clergyman is more interested in moral welfare of individual than his return. No doubt, doctors like the fees but their's core desire is to treat the illness. Thus, ^{for} all the well-educated, intellectual persons, their work is first next money.

Title: Prioritizing purpose over profit.

Total words of Passage: 236

Total words of precis: 74