

_ / _ / 20_

Nations do not die from invasion, they die from internal rotteness.

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: A nation decides the fate of a country. The internal loopholes ^{even} lay down ~~on~~ great empires. Therefore, it is crucial to maintain internal structure and functions.

2- Historicising the importance of nations' internal strength.

3- Enlisting the causes of internal rotteness of a nation.

a- marginalization of an ethnic group

b- ~~religious restrictions~~ ^{fanning of} sectarian divide

c- lack of meritocracy

d- inferior and superior divide among institutes

e- more corruptions, less accountability

f- insufficient leadership capabilities

g- biased media

4. Internal rotteness is more critical than invasion.

- a- Sirajuddaula got betrayed because of his minister mir Jafar
- b- Rohangyan crises in Myanmar is restricting its growth
- c- Rwanda civil war 1990-1994 damaged its social fabric
- d- Sectarian divide becomes the reason of fall of great ottoman empire
- e- Arab spring 2011 consequences is still faced by Syria in 2024
- f- Young protestants turned down the government of Sheikh Hasina
- g- Politicians wrangling on programme arranged by news channels

Conclusion.