

ASSIGNMENT # 01

BRAIN DRAIN : Causes and consequences

BRAIN STORMING

OUTLINE

Causes

- Quality of life
- Economic factors
- Higher Education
- Lack of technology
- Better career opportunities
- Political instability
- Social factors

Consequences

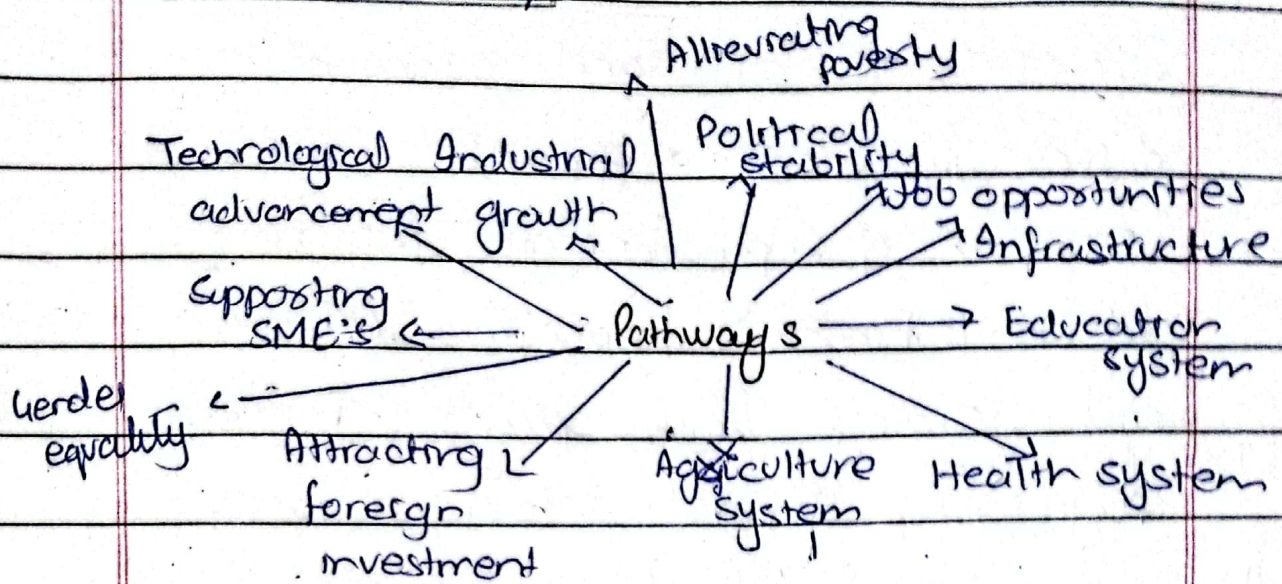

- Loss of talent
- Skills gap

- Economic impact
- Benefit for destination countries

Imagine a nation rich in talent, potential and brightest minds but are searching for better opportunities abroad so that they can prove their worth → leaving their own country struggling - Brain drain, the process of emigration of talented minds from country - This poses ~~a~~ serious challenge and result in depletion of human capital, ^{adverse} economic impact and overall slowed progress - The primary causes of brain drain include inadequate career opportunities, political instability, and higher education - Undoubtedly, it will lead to significant economic decline, loss of talent and skills and causing hindered development in home country -

PATHWAYS To Pakistan Progress

BRAIN STORMING

DUTING

- Education system improvement
- Healthcare system improvement
- Agriculture modernization
- Technological advancements
- Political stability
- Creating job opportunities
- Economic development
 - Alleviating poverty
 - Gender equality
 - Supporting SME's
 - Industrial growth
 - Attracting foreign investments
- ~~Be~~ Improving Judicial system

Imagine a Pakistan, where education thrives, healthcare is accessible to all and innovation drives economic growth, this vision of progress is within reach through focused reforms and strategic development - Pakistan progress depends on strategic reforms and development efforts in various sectors to unlock its full potential - To realize this potential Pakistan must address critical areas such as educational reforms, economic stability, better judiciary, technological advancements and creating job opportunities - By tackling these challenges Pakistan can build a foundation for sustainable growth and prosperity