

Baised Media is a Real Threat to Democracy

OUTLINE :

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Baised Media and Democracy at Global Level

3. Connection between Media and Democracy:

a - Media has the potential to shape public perception

b - Media has a great influence in major decision of government

c - Media can promote or demote government campaigns

4. How Baised Media is a Real Threat to Democracy

a - Baised media can potray false image of opponent person

b - Baised media can negatively affect public perception

c - It can hide information based upon their intrest

d - Baised media can ban the telecast of the views of opponent person

e - Baised media can provide polished and edited piece of news to support their intrest

5. Way Forward to counter the Negative Influence of Biased Media:

- a. Equal platform should be provided to everyone to express their views.
- b. Strict actions should be taken by the government against the spread of misinformation.
- c. An uncut version of news should be telecasted.
- d. Unbiased opinions should be provided by the tv-show hosts.
- e. Pros and Cons of every matter should be put forward.

6. Conclusion.