Education Ensures Moral Development

There are three schools of thought ~~exist~~ on freedom in education. First, who votes for complete freedom of children. ~~The~~ Second one sides ~~about~~ complete subjection, and last one talks about the complete freedom but with great goodness. The idea that liberty will ensure moral perfection is merely a philosophical term, and it is ~~not~~ applicable on babies and animals. People with this belief think that education should provide suitable ~~environment~~ for growth. But, survival of world ~~requires~~ co-operation. Education is important for its existence. It should be considered more than ~~only~~ an opportunity for growth and must also provide ~~mental~~ and moral assistance which children ~~cannot~~ have by themselves.
