When Helen inquired Mr. West about what happened to John, Mr. West replied he had left the company. On Helen asking him why he had done that, Mr. West informed her that he had asked for a raise. Helen interrogatively asked why you did not give him, Mr. West blamed him saying he was lazy. Helen cross-questioned whether he (John) found another job. Mr. West answered back by saying yes, he is working in the film industry. Helen curiously asked what his salary looks like, Mr. West arrogantly said he earns quite well. Hastily, Helen asked if he enjoys his new job, Mr. West responded to her saying he had no idea.
