	Finally comes the semedy for the lack of efficient human resource. This can be done by the appoinment of permanent faculty instead of the visiting. The Higher Education Commission should here PhD.
	Scholars and subject spewalists faculty to teach their respective courses, in addition to other subjects. Furthermore, to promote teacher training programs, It is essential to introduce training seasons every 5 or 6 years. The government should introduce subject - speafie training, Project - based learning training, and online teaching training to train university faculty and tutors.

Similarly, faculty members should not be burdened with multitasking. The government should him faculty to maintain a balance of roles, without assigning additional responsibilities that can cause stress and minimize productivity.

Finally, to evaluate the performance of permanent faculty. The government should arrange for experienced faculty to ensure a fair and comprehensive evaluation process, identify areas for improvement, and promote teaching encellence.
