

_ / _ / 20_

Nations do not die from invasion, they die from internal rotteness.

1- Introduction Bring further maturity in thesis statement

Thesis statement: A nation decides the fate of a country. The internal loopholes ^{even} lay down ~~on~~ great empires. Therefore, it is crucial to maintain internal structure and functions.

2- Historicising the importance of nations internal strength.

3- Enlisting the causes of internal rotteness of a nation.

- a- marginalization of an ethnic group
- b- ~~religious restrictions~~ ^{fanning of sectarian} divide
- c- lack of meritocracy
- d- inferior and superior divide among institutes
- e- more corruptions, less accountability
- f- insufficient leadership capabilities
- g- biased media

Irrelevant details

4. Internal rotteness is more critical than invasion.

- a- Sirajuddaula got betrayed because of his minister ✓
- b- Rohangyan crises in Myanmar is restricting its growth ✓
- c- Rwanda civil war 1990-1994 damaged its social fabric ✓
- d- Sectarian divide becomes the reason of fall of great Roman empire ✓
- e- Arab spring 2011 consequences is still faced by Syria in 2024 ✓
- f- Young protestants turned down the government of Sheikh Hasina ✓
- g- Politicians wrangling on programme arranged by news channels ✓

Conclusion.

→ These are examples or incidents, not arguments
 Must build solid arguments on the topic